Devotional Guide

The Prayer of Jabez

Scripture Reading: 1st Chronicles 4: 9-10

Monday: Read 1st Chronicles 4: 9

Jabez is remembered for a prayer request rather than a heroic act. In his prayer, he asked God to (1) bless him, (2) help him in his work ("extend my lands"), (3) be with him in all he did, and (4) keep him from trouble and pain.

Tuesday: Read 1st Chronicles 4: 10

Jabez acknowledged God as the true center of his work. When we pray for God's blessing, we should also ask him to take his rightful position as Lord over work, our family time, and our recreation. Obeying him in daily responsibilities is heroic living.

Wednesday: Read 1st Chronicles 4: 10

Jabez prayed specifically to be protected from trouble and pain. We live in a fallen world filled with sin, it is important to ask God to keep us safe from the unavoidable evil that comes our way. Be we must avoid evil motives, desires, and actions that begin within us.

Thursday: Read 1st Chronicles 4: 10

Therefore, not only must we seek God's protection from evil, but we must also ask God to guard our thoughts and actions. We can begin to utilize his protection by filling our mind with positive thoughts and attitudes.

Friday: 1st Chronicles 4: 9,10

"Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez, saying, "I gave birth to him in pain." Jabez cried out to the God of Isreal, "O, that you would bless me and enlarge my territory! Let your hand be with me, and keep me from harm so that I will be free from pain." And God granted his request."

This week's devotional guide was taken from the Life Application Study Bible.
