God Talks to Us

One of God’s most precious gifts to us, a gift that shows how highly he values us, is his Word, the Bible. He wants us to know what he is like, what he has done, how he thinks and how he talks. In Paul’s letter to the Christians in Thessalonica he praised them for recognizing that upon hearing the Word from Paul, it was like hearing the voice of God.

WAY TO GO TUMC!

Committee members, lay speakers and others joined with like attendees from Community, Asbury, St Andrews and Winter Park UM Churches last Sunday at Asbury UMC. It was a delightful time of praising, sharing and being in fellowship at Charge conference. For many of us at TUMC, it was a first time experience but one that we will, and should cherish. Heartfelt thanks to those who were able to attend. Please be in prayer for Rev. Craig and the members of the 2010 Leadership team as we move ahead.

ALTAR FLOWERS

The flowers on the altar today are given by Warren and Connie Sloane in honor and memory of all our veterans. Thank you for your service.

There are two work days that will be for doing whatever painting or crafting is needed. Jenny Wherrell and Shinn Quinn are in charge of the set designs and Carla Hemmingway is in charge of costuming. Below is the list of needs and the dates set aside for working to put this great event together. Thank you all for any and all of your support. Great is the Lord!
